Plenary I: Federal Engagement – Putting Policy into Practice

Thursday, February 6, 2020

8:30 - 10:00 AM

Please join us to kick off the 2020 Policy Forum with an engaging panel from the federal Office of Child Support featuring Deputy Commissioner Linda Boyer and division leadership. As child support agencies put policy into practice to secure reliable support payments for families, OCSE is supporting your programs to not only operate, but also innovate. OCSE will address the federal perspective on the current state of the child support program and future plans for achieving the mission of reducing poverty for children and families. The panel will discuss their major projects, priorities, accomplishments, and latest developments to engage with you in serving children and families.

Speakers: Linda Boyer, Mona Ferrell, Angela Ingram-Jones, Melissa, Johnson, James Murray, Yvette Riddick

Moderator: Tanguler Gray
